..... Respondent

Date of hearing : 12.06.2014

Present :

1. Shri I.C. Das, Complainant.
2. Shri S.B. Singh, AGM , Gaurav Chauhan and Manish Rohatgi, Legal Official, on behalf of the Respondent.

ORDER

The above named complainant, father of Shri Akshay Kumar Das, a student with Tourette's disorder filed a complaint dated 14.03.2013 under the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995, hereinafter referred to as the 'Act', regarding provision of extra time to his son for writing examination.

2. The complainant submitted that due to Tourette's disorder, his son Shri Akshay Kumar Das was facing difficulty in writing. Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital issued him a certificate based on which, CBSE allowed him extra time during class X and class XII examinations held in the year 2010 and 2012 respectively. He was studying in B-Tech (Computer Science & Engineering) second semester in Amity University. He requested the University to allow him extra time during the exams, which was not accepted. As a result, he could not do well in the first semester. The complainant requested that Amity University be asked to allow his son extra time.

3. Although Shri Akshay Kumar Das is not a person with disability as per the Persons with Disabilities Act, yet in view of the need to provide reasonable accommodations of the individual's requirements due to the disorder, the matter was forwarded to Amity University, Noida.
